HISTORY OF THE MANOR PARC HOTEL

Built in 1850 as a country manor house, Y Parc as it was then called was home to the England family, potato merchants from Cardiff who were key in developing the Pembrokeshire new potato.

Y Parc was sold in 1917 to the Keen family who were steel merchants and co-owners of Guest, Keen and Nettlefold Steel in Cardiff.

In 1984 Y Parc became the Manor Parc Restaurant, a family run business which subsequently became the Manor Parc Country Hotel and Restaurant in 1990.

Entrusted to the next generation in 2015 the Manor Parc remains an independent family run venue with an excellent reputation for its customer service, dining and functions.
